Seller's Faire: May

By Michelle Zipse / Resident

The last Seller's Faire was on Sunday, May 1. Once again there were a full number of vendors participating. The knife sharpener was on site and will be at the next Faire on Sunday, June 5. Please mark your calendars and bring your tools and knives down for him to sharpen. The vendors had crafts, jewelry, aprons and other sewn products, cookies and hot sauces etc. There were so many options.

Beyond Body is a hand made from scratch bath, shower and skin moisturizing products. There was body creams and oils with a variety of flavors. Lorrece Shisholm is the owner and creator of these products. This was Lorrece's first Faire but she says she will be back.

Our own Christina Stendall was back with Sweet Cheeks. Christina is a baking artist. She makes beautifully designed custom cookies and home made jams from local fruit grown in the Meadows.

Magical Keepsakes was there. Jen

Wood Fired Pizza for everyone!

By Michelle Zipse / Resident

The Hidden Meadows Women's Social Group met for a Wood Fired Pizza Party at the home of Melissa Mitchell. Melissa has been a resident for many years. This is her 3rd home in Hidden Meadows. She has moved out of state and returned and then she and her husband decided to pick the lot and build. Her home is extraordinary and she was able to do just what she wanted with it. The views are amazing. So this was the perfect spot for ladies in the neighborhood to get together for their monthly ladies group.

Melissa recently built and tiled her own outdoor pizza oven. I remember talking to her about the trials and tribulations of tiling this work of art and how she was on a time line to prepare the ladies event. She hired "The Pizza Guys" who came to her place with fresh made dough and supplies and created the wonderful pizzas we enjoyed. There were a large variety of pizzas. Some of the classics like

Breakfast with Friends

By Linda Collins / Resident

A small group of women from the Hidden Meadows Women's Social Group got together for breakfast at the Golden Egg Omelet House. The owners, John and Karleen Lovett, live here in Hidden Meadows. Karleen was able to join us for breakfast, which was wonderful as she has been dealing with some serious health challenges.

Karleen told us they've owned the restaurant for 42 years. The idea came out of a golf trip that John took in Northern California. He found a lovely little diner with really good food. The next time he went up there, he took Karleen there. She liked it! She told him that she would eat at a place like it if there was one near home. And shortly thereafter, they were the owners of the Golden Egg Omelet House.

The decor is lovely and spunky arts and craft items that are all for sale. Their menu is long with many omelet and other breakfast options. I had a walnut waffle, which I loved! Others had omelets, French toast, and . . . Mimosas. They call theirs a Morning Glory. Some of their staff have been with them for 20 years, which speaks to the care of the owners.

I love breakfast. Breakfast with friends is even better. And the small group made it warm and welcoming. I am smiling just thinking about it!

Mother’s Day Gift Bag Assembly

By Nancy Ogrod /Resident
Hidden Meadows you are amazing!!! Thank you does not even begin to express appreciation to all of you who contributed soaps, lotions, shampoos, cosmetic bags, toothbrushes and toothpaste, and numerous other items to this year’s Mother’s Day gift bags. Six women gathered to assemble the bags and share a time of fun and friendship. Over 50 bags were assembled and distributed to Hidden Valley House and Interfaith. Interfaith was given additional bags and several boxes of bulk items for distribution.
Please keep traveling and saving those precious items. We will be assembling bags for Christmas, so watch the Hidden Meadows News for the date and time. Plan on joining us for this fun filled time as we share the love from Hidden Meadows.

Garden Club Gets Waterwise

By Linda Collins / Resident
On Friday, May 13th, yes, Friday the 13th, the Hidden Meadows Garden Club visited Waterwise Botanicals on highway 395. It was our lucky day. It was a gorgeous Sunny day, and we got to see hundreds if not thousands of drought tolerant, waterwise plants. They weren't all cactus and succulents either. They have wide variety of other waterwise plants, bushes, and trees. And a nice selection of bromeliads, air plants, pots, driftwood and more. They

HIDDEN MEADOWS GARAGE SALE

By Kathy Moore / Resident

Will you be a seller or buyer this year??? Or maybe BOTH??

Few things make me happier than turning my unwanted ‘STUFF’ into cold hard cash. There are several ways to do this, however we are taking out much of the hard work for you by planning a Hidden Meadows Community Garage Sale that you just need to sign up to join!!!!

Having a garage sale takes work and can be extremely frustrating if you don’t know what you’re doing. To avoid as many headaches as possible we are streamlining the process for you!

HIDDEN MEADOWS COMMUNITY GARAGE SALE:

1/ THE DATE: Saturday, June 25th & June 26th from 8am - 2pm, RAIN OR SHINE!

2/ Gather Your Goods: Declutter & downsize your home. Grab a box and go through every room. Pick up anything you don’t want or haven’t used in months and toss it in. Don’t forget closets, attics, basements, and garages as these are usually treasure troves for garage sale finds. Don’t underestimate the value of what you find either; remember that one person’s trash is another person’s treasure. After all, the worst case scenario is that something doesn’t sell.

Provide a short, general list of items to Jennifer Hill @ JennHill68@gmail.com, so she can note these items on the distribution maps that will be provided.

3/ Advertising: We will get the word out via this paper, FB, Craigslist, community signage & various other garage & yard sale sites. Also, please feel free to spread the word on your own social media outlets!

4/ Signs: We will have signs leading into the neighborhood & coming up the hill the day of the event. The signs will direct everyone to the 4 way stop at Meadow Glen Way West & Mountain Meadow, where they can stop to collect a map of participating homes. Feel free to bring your own signs to guide buyers to your home from the 4 way stop!

5/ Get Change: Make sure that you have sufficient change ready for sale day....plenty of singles & change.

6/ PRICE & SELL, SELL, SELL!!! Last year was very successful & we anticipate the same this year.

Now doesn’t this seem easy & fun??

Remember: call or email Jennifer Hill at JennHill68@gmail.com – 760-484-4121. Please provide a general idea of items you will have, ie: furniture, children’s toys, books, yard tools, etc. Jennifer will then add your address & items to the list for distribution.

BOOK REVIEW - By Lynn Clark

This book takes place during WWII in Ireland, and since I have read multiple books about WWII, I am always surprised when I read something that is new. Much has been written about the political and religious division of Ireland over the years. When war was declared, Ireland declared neutrality, but not a lot has been written about how the war affected the people and places in Northern Ireland that were still loyal to Britain. This book is considered historical fiction.

"The Elephant of Belfast" by S. Kirk Walsh

The time is October 1940 in Belfast, Ireland. A young girl named Hettie has just witnessed the incredible sight of a young orphaned elephant from India being lowered to ground from an airplane. She is a helper at the zoo where the elephant will be housed and she wants nothing more than to be her caretaker. The elephant is named Violet, and as their bond grows Hettie assumes the title and responsibility of a Zoo Keeper.

Even though Hettie's home life is fractured due to her father's desertion and her older sister's death due to childbirth, the zoo provides a life line for her away from her troubled family. In 1941 when Belfast is bombed by a Luftwaffe attack, the problems begin for a divided city. Her mother goes to the available underground shelter and Hettie goes to the zoo to help.

The horror starts with the owner's decision concerning which animals will survive and which ones will be eliminated. Even though the zoo was unharmed during the first bombing it might not be so lucky the next time, and the possibility of the animals escaping and endangering the population is a reality he can't allow to happen.

Hettie is determined to save Violet from being killed so she takes her from the zoo out of the city to find shelter. The bombing is one problem, but the growing political tensions between the Irish people themselves put Violet and Hettie in a dangerous situation which threaten their survival.

also had several beautiful and whimsical planted displays where one could get ideas and inspiration.

Joanne and Christa spent a lot of time looking at the small succulents, using Google to look up some of the plant names. Diane, Dale, and Mike wandered out where the larger items were on display. All-in-all, the 14 of us spent an hour walking and talking about plants. . .and getting ideas for the next garden project.

The staff was very friendly and happy to answer any questions. We found out that they have a free succulent day on the first Saturday of each month. Each adult can choose one of 5 different plants. Kids receive a free garden kit. They are open from 8:30-2:30 for these events. Often they will have food trucks or you can bring a picnic lunch and eat in one of the picnic areas.

The kids would also enjoy seeing the turtles in the pond, too.

Be sure to wear comfy shoes as there is a whole lot to see.

Send us your social news

The HMN is your hometown newspaper and we want you to send us your social news because: your life is news to your neighbors and friends.

What is social news? Weddings, anniversaries, birthdays, special events. We cover it all, but we need for you to tell us about it first! Are you getting married? Send us the engagement announcement. Did you just give birth? Send us the announcement and a photo.

Did you just have a family reunion? Celebrate a graduation or other personal milestone? Keep us in mind and send us a photo or a quick note about what you'd like your town to know about. We are happy to help you celebrate.

Do you want to celebrate a parent's 90th or 100th birthday? Tell us about it.
